UPCOMING

Save The Date For Lay Training Day

These trainings will be for lay people who want to be trained as Eucharistic Ministers, Eucharistic Visitors, and/or Worship Leaders. Join us on May 11th from 9am to 3pm at St. Martin's in Moses Lake for a day of in person training. Prior to this training, attendees must complete online Safe Church, Safe Communities (formally known as Safeguarding God's Children/People) training. This is completed online and takes approximately 3 hours to complete. Please bring a printed transcript of your completed training. For information on how to complete this training, please visit the diocesan website linked below.

For questions, contact Rev. Ashley Mather at RevAshleyMather@gmail.com.

REGISTER FOR CAMP CROSS

Camp Cross on Lake Coeur d'Alene is a place of scenic natural beauty. You'll enjoy hiking, boating, swimming, campfire songs and more. Come for our youth and family camps, or come for one of our adult retreats. Stay for the friends, relaxation, and wonderful community. As an Episcopal Church Camp, part of The Episcopal Diocese of Spokane, we emphasize the values that Christ teaches us of relationships, prayer, discipleship, and service. We hope to instill these values in campers so they will take them back to their homes and communities to become disciples for the transformation of the world. For more information and to register check out the website linked below.
